1. Welcome to www.kreibaum.net

This is the english Version of my a homepage (with just the basic information, sorry). Most of the genealogical data should be usable even though part of the texts are in german (these are automagically fetched from my database and the effort just for the sake of having "Born" instead of "Geboren" in my lists is imho to much). If you have any questions please do not hesitate to send them or drop me a note.

Here's where you find my genealogical data (the reason why I've set up this page...) - have a look and if there's anything of interest, let me know ... And you can search my database on rootsweb: Kreibaum Database or Geneanet ...

You can still use the old version (completely in english) which reflects the status of my research until abt. 06/2002.
